

Instructions on how to submit a Preprint of your accepted abstract

World Conference on Marine Biodiversity – WCMB 2018

May 13-16, 2018

Montréal, Canada

- 1.) Create a free account in PeerJ at <https://peerj.com/signup/> and follow the steps to activate your account;
- 2.) Once your account is activated, click “My Manuscripts” and “Submit Article” (or click on <https://peerj.com/manuscripts/start/>);
- 3.) Start the submission by choosing either “Life, Biological, Environmental and Health Sciences” or “Computer Science” as the research area (based on the likely audience for your work);
 - Check the Preprint author guidelines (<https://peerj.com/about/preprints/scope-and-instructions/>);
 - Choose “Preprint” as article type;
 - Start your submission and follow the steps;
- 4.) In the first submission screen there is a “Comments from the Author” field – please include the following text in this field: “This is an abstract which has been accepted for the WCMB” (for abstracts);
- 5.) The first submission screen asks you to input the abstract text. For Abstracts, this should be the same abstract text which is present in the PDF of your accepted abstract;
- 6.) There is a “Notes for PeerJ Staff” field – in that field you should also mention that this submission is intended for the WCMB Collection
- 7.) At the final submission step, you should upload a PDF of your abstract. This document should include the title of the submission and full author names and affiliations. The text in that PDF should be the same as the information previously entered into the system.
